

Here is what attendees have had to say about their experiences:

"I feel committed and charged towards change in a way I don't usually feel after conferences, and I have already made many steps to continue to learn and follow through on things that I learned at Facing Race."

"I met and learned from so many incredible leaders from around the country working [on] issues from reproductive justice, to anti-displacement efforts, to organizing for Black and Brown LGBTQX rights and liberation."

"EMPOWERING. INCREDIBLE. SAFE. There isn't anywhere else I would have rather been while processing the election results. What an incredible community."

"[Facing Race] Saved my soul after the election. A vision of what America should be, a glimpse of what it is. Connecting with others working for racial justice and ending oppression and white supremacy cured my isolation."

"It was exactly what I needed to pull me out of my grief from the election and look ahead at what needs to be done."
