Promote Your Work

Join us at Facing Race, the largest gathering of organizers, movement leaders, artists and scholars in the social justice movement. The exhibition hall is for you to showcase your business offerings, products, and services in our marketplace, open throughout the Conference. With over 3000 conference attendees annually, this is your business's chance to connect with scholars, artists, and others across the movement.

Rates:

The Facing Race Exhibition Hall will feature National and Raleigh-based businesses and organizations owned, operated by, or in service to people of color. We reaffirm our commitment to partner with vendors whose entities support multiracial and fully inclusive communities.
