

$886 BILLION

Amount the U.S. House is considering to spend on the Pentagon this year

A $100 BILLION DOLLAR CUT COULD FUND ANY OF THE FOLLOWING HUMAN NEEDS

Entirely offset inflation price increases of groceries

$92.7 billion

Expand Medicare to 7.3 million more people

$31 billion

Provide universal childcare

$70 billion

House every homeless person

$7.4 billion

Expand the Child Tax Credit

$97 billion

Provide every American household with onshore wind power

$48.7 billion

Replace every lead pipe in the U.S.

$47 billion

Transition all 729,000 U.S. fossil fuel workers to clean energy jobs

$86.7 billion

Provide universal school meals

$5.2 billion

Provide a dozen new teachers in every public primary school

$78.9 billion

Give 1.3 million public school teachers a 50% raise

$62.4 billion

Provide universal family and medical leave to all employees

$61.5 billion

TOTAL: $689 billion

